How to use this journal

There's no wrong way to keep a prayer journal. Write to God the way you'd talk to a close friend, and write down the people on your heart so you don't forget them. Some days you'll fill a page. Some days you'll write one line. Both count.

TWO SIMPLE WAYS TO PRAY

for the days you don't know where to start

The five P's

Praise	Tell God who He is to you today.
Pardon	Name what you got wrong, and let Him forgive you.
People	Pray for others by name, the hard ones too.
Petition	Ask for what you need, big or small.
Purpose	Ask what He wants of you. Then listen a while.

ACTS

Adoration	Praise God for who He is.
Confession	Be honest about where you fell short.
Thanksgiving	Thank Him for specific things from today.
Supplication	Ask, for the people you love and for yourself.

Page 6 walks you through ACTS, one step at a time.

A FEW TIPS

- Start with five minutes. A short prayer you pray beats a long one you skip.
- Nothing here is dated, so a missed day is just a page you didn't use. Start again where you are.
- Print the daily pages as often as you like. Keep the rest at the front of a binder.
- When a prayer is answered, write it on page 8, then tell the person you were praying for.

A PRAYER TO BEGIN

Lord, I don't always know what to say. Teach me to talk with you the way I'd talk with a friend. Bring the right people to mind as I write, and help me notice when you answer. Amen.

"Trust in him at all times; ye people, pour out your heart before him: God is a refuge for us." PSALM 62:8
